STUDENTS:

- All students in Grades K-12
- Includes students who take private lessons, and must have teacher approval to enter
- Any student with natural talent (not in art classes)
- By entering artwork, this will be considered an acknowledgment of a media release form

AWARDS:

- Cash Prizes and 1ST, 2ND, AND 3RD place ribbons will be awarded, funded by Inasmuch Foundation. There will be three age groups (elementary, middle, and high school).
- Something to consider – it is easier to judge pieces that are not specifically “group/ class projects”. We will definitely accept these as part of the exhibit though!

REQUIREMENTS:

- Open theme. No more than 3-5 pieces per student unless approved by CTAC; we will select pieces if space becomes an issue.
- Required – must be hang-ready for our art hanging system & hooks
 - If art is framed, it must be wired to hang (no saw tooth hangers).
 - Art can be matted on foam poster board, construction paper etc. (we use clamps on matted pieces)
- Display ready (sturdy, for table displays)
- Properly labeled on the back
 - Student Name
 - School Name, Grade, Teacher/ Parent Name
 - Contact Information (phone/ email)
- CTAC reserves the right to not display any piece based on content or the limitations of space in the gallery.

EXHIBIT LENGTH:

- All artwork will hang in the gallery from March 1 – 24th (must remain hanging).
- Artwork must be picked up March 27, 28, or 29th (9:30 - 4:00).
- Please call ahead for special arrangements at 580-252-4160.
- CTAC is not responsible for any artwork not collected after March 30th.

CTAC is a nonprofit organization that is promoting and inspiring the arts in Southwest
